

A 3-day Family Adventure in a UNESCO Global Geopark

Whatever your interest, from water sports to heritage, from cycling to hiking, you can explore it in the Burren and Cliffs of Moher UNESCO Global Geopark where the surroundings will stop you in your tracks. Connect with each other and the unique landscape of the Geopark through your favourite activity.

Day 1: Walk it

- Arrive to the Burren by Kinvara and make your way to the Burren Nature Sanctuary –the looped walking trail takes you through 5 of the Burren habitats featuring seasonal wild flowers. Explore the Burren Botany Bubble, the orchid rich meadow and the disappearing lake. Indulge in some home baked goods, join Emilia the micro pig on a walk through the fairy woodland.
- Head to Ballyvaughan and Aillwee Cave, explore the underworld of the Burren in the show cave, take a walk with a hawk or watch a flying display at the birds of prey centre, indulge your taste buds with smoky cheese and sweet fudge at the farm shop.
- After checking into your accommodation and relaxing for a moment, seek out the foods and flavours of the Burren in an award-winning Burren Food Trail restaurant at Hylands Burren Hotel.

Day 2: Bike it and Climb it

- Begin the day with the Early morning cycle through the heart of the Burren, listen to the bird song and discover ancient sites before finishing up at Burren Fine Wine and Food in Ballyvaughan for a wonderful Burren Breakfast.
- From Ballyvaughan head south to Doolin, explore the deepest point of the Burren underground at Doolin Cave, descending over 200 feet to view the Great Stalactite that weighs over 10 tonnes and an impressive length of over 23 feet long
- Once you have returned to the surface it'll be time for a spot of lunch. In the village of Doolin you will find Stonecutter Kitchen, a Burren Food Trail member that offers the perfect place for a relaxing Burren lunch.
- Refreshed and reenergised it's time to discover the Burren from a height. Head up to the Cliffs of Moher Visitor centre and don't forget to watch out for the Puffins!
- Spend the evening relaxing and reliving the day's adventures over dinner at the award-winning restaurant at Hotel Doolin in Doolin.

Day 3: Forage it

- Join local guide Lisa Guinan Herbalist on a journey of discovery as she shares her knowledge and passion for plants and herbs of the hedgerows. Lisa will guide you on a walk in Nature with specific attention drawn to medicinal plants and flowers along the way. Folklore, traditional cures and modern medicinal uses will be woven into the tale of each wild herb and flower, bringing them to life whilst also glimpsing insights into traditional Irish culture.
- After a refreshing walk head over to Inagh and visit St Tola Goat Farm, pet the goats and taste some of the finest cheese in Ireland!
- Your last stop in this trip is Kilfenora, a historical village, home of Father Ted's shenanigans, a warm welcome awaits you here, in the pubs famous for traditional Irish music and dancing, visit the Burren Centre and the ancient cathedral, with its carvings and its Celtic crosses
- Just 2 Km away from Kilfenora is your accommodation for the night, at Burren Glamping you will get to sleep in a converted horse truck, ideal for families of up to 5 people. While there don't forget to visit their friendly pigs, hens and polytunnel for a fully immersed Farm experience.
